

Opening your study in the wider health and community setting

The Clinical Research Network West of England region has a population of 2,539,870

One commercially active memory clinic – The RICE Centre – specialising in dementia related research

100 research active GP practices, with 23 being commercially active

Two commercially active hospices – Dorothy House Hospice Care & Sue Ryder – specialising in palliative care related research

GP practices are part of a Community of Practice (COP) where they share ideas, provide mentoring for and collaborate on conducting commercial studies

Recruited 346 participants to 11 commercial studies in 2022/23

GP practices are fully equipped and trained to conduct commercial studies