

Accessing lists already set up for your unit in Moodle

If a list has been created for your unit and the link added to Moodle, click on the Library List link on the course page or left hand menu

You may see a message to 'open in a new window'. If so, click this link and select the preferred option

You can now add content or amend the list